

Authors Guidelines

When sending the article, the author must provide a short curricular note.

Articles must be submitted electronically in word format. Accepted languages are Portuguese, English or Spanish.

Articles should not exceed a maximum (as an indication) of 10,000 words.

Articles must comprise the following elements:

- Identification of the author, his professional activity and the institution(s) where he or she pursues the professional activity
- Title in the article's language and in English
- Summary/abstract in the article's language and in English, with maximum 250 words
- Key word (max. 7) in the article's language and in English
- Reference list of all quoted sources
- Reference list of quoted case law

The division of the text must be done using Roman numeration (I, II, III, ...). Each chapter may be subdivided in numbers (1, 2, 3, ...) and subnumbers (1.1, 1.2, 1.3, ...), and the latter in sub-items [a), b), c),...]. Each Roman number must be followed by a bold title. Whenever possible, this should also be done in subtitles.

Author-date system ('Harvard' system) must be used for references. Thus, the article should not contain bibliographic reference notes. References must be inserted in the text itself, in brackets, limited to the name of the author, followed by the year of publication of the quoted work and the page(s) in question.

The article may contain remissive or discussion footnotes.

The final reference list must be constructed in such a way that the name of the author is followed by the year of the publication of the work in evidence. Whenever possible, the bibliographic reference should also include the year of the first edition of the work.
