

Synopsis of the Editorial Project of the journal Anatomia do Crime

The Anatomy of Crime - Journal of Legal-Criminal Sciences start its publication in the year 2014, being its director Maria Fernanda Palma.

Subject area of Anatomia of Crime is specialised information.

It contains the following sections, especially in the area of Criminal Law, in all its aspects:

- Articles on doctrine
- Case law
- Legislation
- Legislative Studies
- Opinions
- Notes and Comments
- Facts and Documents
- Bibliographic Record

The publishing frequency is twice a year. The planned circulation is 300 copies and each number has between 100 and 150 pages, being distributed nationwide by subscription, bookstore sale and electronic sale, and is edited by Editora Almedina, Rua Fernandes Tomás, 76-80, 3000-167 Coimbra.

The director is committed to respecting the deontological principles of the press and professional ethics, ensuring that not only commercial purposes are pursued and that abuse the good faith of the readers is not exploited by covering up or misrepresenting the information.